Bad Check Program Information

As a victim of a bad check you may file a crime report with the Miami-Dade County State Attorney Bad Check Restitution Program, provided there is sufficient information, and that the check meets all eligibility guidelines. The Program will seek full restitution for victims whenever possible; however, please keep in mind that the Program can make no recovery guarantees. By submitting the check to the Program you surrender control of the check to criminal process and forego the opportunity to pursue civil debt collections.

Check writers are encouraged to make payments in full. Should a partial payment be received, the payment will be allocated between the victim and the Bad Check Program. "Restitution" refers to the face value of all checks listed on this report.

A check will be deemed ineligible and returned to you to pursue a civil remedy, if the check is later determined to be:

- A stop payment check where the issuer acted in good faith and with reasonable cause in stopping payment.
- A check issued by someone not competent or of legal age.
- The check was issued by someone who is not a signatory on the account.
- The check was post dated or you were asked to hold the check.
- A check dishonored due to bank error or failure to notify the check writer of bank adjustment of a check.
- A check issued to pay an obligation arising from an illegal transaction
- I understand that the check writer has the option to dispute this claim in writing with the Bad Check Restitution Program.

What to do after my crime report is filed with the Program

- The program will notify you in writing if the case is eligible for diversion.
- You may contact the Diversion Provider handling your case 30 days after the case is referred to diversion.
- Please allow us a minimum of 90 days to pursue restitution.
- If the check writer does not comply with the Program, the case may be reviewed for possible criminal prosecution.
- If we are unable to recover restitution and/or the check is not "eligible" for prosecution, the documents you provided will be returned to you.
