State Attorney Katherine Fernandez Rundle announces the activation of her Elections Response Team and Task Force this morning to ensure that early voting sites remain free of any impropriety or illegal activity.

“Law enforcement will be available to make sure that voting in our county is fair and that everyone’s voice is heard. I have set up an elections response team that will go out in response to any complaints about possible voting irregularities”, commented State Attorney Fernandez Rundle.

To assist in this endeavor, investigators from the State Attorney’s Office will be available during scheduled voting hours throughout the early voting period commencing today Monday, October 24, 2022, through Sunday, November 6, 2022, and on November 8, 2022, election day.
