“Today’s arrests highlight the critical work of our Gun Violence Initiative Unit and our ongoing partnership with the Miami Gardens Police Department,” said State Attorney Katherine Fernandez Rundle. “What began as a home invasion robbery investigation quickly revealed a major narcotics operation hidden in plain sight. This record setting seizure sends a clear message: drug trafficking will not be tolerated in our community.”

Miami Gardens Police Department leadership echoed this commitment, emphasizing the importance of coordinated investigative efforts in dismantling dangerous criminal activity within residential neighborhoods.

“I’m extremely proud of the hard work and dedication of the men and women of our department,” said Miami Gardens Police Chief Delma Noel-Pratt. “This accomplishment is a direct result of the continued partnerships we have built with our state and federal partners, The State Attorney’s Office, and the trust and cooperation we continue to receive from our community.”
